

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Wedding Gifts.

Lamps and Domes.

Practical Models; Unique Designs

A SUPERB collection of Artistic and Beautiful Electric, Gas, and Oil Lamps; also Handsome Designs in Hanging Domes. The Reading Lamps, for the library, Hangings for the hall and music-room, Domes for the living-room, Piano and Boudoir Lamps, together with many other lighting effects to enhance the beauty of the home, are the result of the most careful design and execution.

Your attention and inspection are invited to the new showing.

Electric Desk and Reading Lamps, in simple, conventional designs; also handsome new ideas; panel shades of stained and cut glass; brushed brass standards.

$8.00 to $12.00 each.

Electric Portables, in many handsome and artistic patterns of brushed and polished brass and verdigris, chased and plain effects; panel shades in numerous brightly colored glass effects.

$12.50 to $75.00 each.

A new and very artistic Cluster Hanging is shown for the first time; five frosted cut-glass prisms are suspended from brushed brass in novel arrangement.

$50.00.

Main floor—G. st.

Electric Panel Domes, in a great variety of sizes and styles, to take from three to eight bulbs; included are ideas worked out in beautiful variegated colors of glass suitable for all periods of decoration.

$13.50 to $150.00 each.

Cut-glass Electric Dome, quaint in pattern and exquisite in execution of work and effect; nothing handsomer or more suitable for reception hall.

$50.00.

Gas and Oil Lamps, in a variety of attractive models, with shades to conform.

Gas, $7.50 to $32.00 each.

Oil, $9.00 to $15.00 each.

Artistic Brass.

Hammered, Polished and Brushed

BRASS for its decorative value alone is constantly increasing in use. Nothing will produce a more beautiful or harmonious effect with any style of furnishing. The splendid showing of ours is quaint and varied in shapes and sizes:

Hammered Brass.

Jardinières, each, $1.00 to $11.00.
Fern Dishes, each, $1.00 to $2.00.
Flower Baskets, each, $1.00 to $4.00.
Umbrella Jars, each, $3.00 to $10.50.
Trays, each, $1.00 to $3.75.
Finger Bowls, each, $1.00 to $2.50.

Main floor—G. st.

Flower Vases, $1.25 to $4.00.
Pitchers, $1.00 to $2.50.
Hanging Baskets, $1.50 and $3.50.

Polished and Brushed Brass.
Candlesticks, $2.00 to $5.00.
Window Boxes, $2.50 to $8.50.
Bonbon Dishes, $1.00 to $2.00.
Fruit Bowls, $1.00 to $1.25.

Main floor—G. st.

Clocks for Gifts.

The Height of Artistic Skill.

DESIGNED and executed in the most handsome patterns—they are endowed with an individuality which makes them easily distinguishable from the commonplace productions. Nothing more suitable for Wedding or Anniversary Gifts, and the wide choice of styles we offer makes selection easy and pleasurable.

Handsome and Very Rich Clock Set, of French bronze and cut glass, consisting of clock and candleabra, elaborate in ornamentation of carving. The clock is an eight-day style.

$65.00.

8-day Imported French Bronze and Enamel Clock, artistically designed; the bronze representing inlaid mosaic work in colors of rare beauty.

$60.00.

Office Clocks, $3.50 to $10.00.
Iron Clocks, $4.75 to $12.00.

Main floor—G. st.

French Bronze and White Marble Clock, in eight-day style, fitted with best works, making it accurate in time-keeping.

$35.00.

Large Bronze Clocks, made by Seth Thomas Company, 8-day style, $16.00 to $32.50 each.

Boudoir Clocks, in leather, bronze, nickel, &c. Numerous styles, designs, &c.

$1.25 to $20.00 each.

Mahogany Clocks, $10.00 to $20.00 each.

Mission Clocks, $3.50 to $10.

Exhibition and Sale of

Shetland Ponies

From the Belle Mead Farm, Markham, Va.

A TREAT for the children. Bring them in to see the group of Shetland Ponies which we have on exhibition and sale in Toy Department, Fourth floor, daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. What boy or girl does not love a pony? And the Shetland is the most beautiful, the most reliable in disposition, the hardest, and freest from defect. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Fourth floor—Eleventh st.

Woodward & Lothrop.

Bankers to Hold Meetings.
Thomas E. Rogers, superintendent of the national bank redemption agency, and Edward E. Schneider, chief of the Bureau of Redemption, Treasury Department, are the two speakers who will address the regular meeting of the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking to-night. President Clayton has also arranged a musical programme, and at the conclusion of the meeting refreshments will be served.

At the American Institute of Banking to-night. President Clayton has also arranged a musical programme, and at the conclusion of the meeting refreshments will be served.

W.B. Reduso CORSETS

Work wonders in perfecting the well-developed figure. Its ingenious construction enables the large woman to reduce the measurements of hips and abdomen from one to five inches without pressure or discomfort. No straps or attachments of any sort—yet the fashionable, slender outline is attained.

REDUSO, style 782 (as pictured). For tall, large figures. Bust height is medium. Hips, back, and abdomen are very long. Imported coutil. Price $5.00.

REDUSO, style 770. For average well-developed figures. Medium high bust, long over hips and abdomen. Coutil or batiste, 3 pairs hose supporters. Price $3.00.

Other REDUSO models, $3.00 to $10.00.

W. B. Nuform Corsets

Fit the figure perfectly. A great variety of models in all lengths and sizes. Firmly stayed with rust-proof boning.

NUFORM, style 485 (as pictured). For average figures. Medium bust height, long over hips, back, and abdomen. Material is coutil, 2 pairs hose supporters. Price $1.50.

Numerous other models $1.00 to $5.00.

At All Stores.

WEINGARTEN BROS., Makers.

New York.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Mary H. Lee to Wed
Fred Sturgis Laurence.

MISS BLOOMER TO BE BRIDE

Mrs. Heap Announces Engagement of Daughter to Mr. P. Johnson Ward, of Philadelphia—McLean-Patterson Bridal Party Entertained at Dinner—Ambassador Returns.

Mrs. Heap, widow of Col. John George Lee, U. S. A., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Helen, to Mr. Fred Sturgis Laurence, of New York, son of the late Maj. E. Z. Laurence, U. S. A. The wedding will take place in Washington in the spring. Miss Lee is a well-known soprano singer, who has made many successes at recitals and concerts. Mr. Laurence is a business man of the metropolis, and was formerly connected with the Rookwood Pottery Company, of Cincinnati. Miss Lee will have a musical Sunday afternoon in the studio of Mrs. Oldberg, at which she will sing and Miss Ethel Tozier will play some piano numbers. Mr. Laurence will spend the week-end in Washington.

Mrs. Heap, wife of Paymaster S. Lawrence Heap, U. S. N., yesterday announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Pansy Bloomer, to Mr. P. Johnson Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Ward, of Philadelphia, formerly of Baltimore, as noted in this column a fortnight ago. No date is set for the wedding, but it is expected to take place this winter. It is said Miss Bloomer and Mr. Ward met at the wedding of the former's brother and the latter's cousin, Miss Katherine Clabaugh, last April, when Miss Bloomer was the bride's maid of honor.

The Mexican Ambassador, Senor de la Barra, accompanied by his two sons, returned to the embassy yesterday from Mexico. The Ambassador will have with him for a portion of the winter his brother and family.

The naval attaché of the French Embassy and Viscountess d'Azy will return to Washington this week. The viscountess spent the summer abroad, while the viscount was at Manchester, on the North Shore. They will spend the winter at the Ontario, as they did last year.

Capt. Walter McLean, U. S. N., and Mrs. McLean were hosts at dinner Tuesday evening at the Chevy Chase Club in compliment to the bride party of their daughter, Miss Elsie Jarvis McLean, and Mr. Paul C. Patterson, managing editor of the Washington Times, whose marriage takes place this afternoon. Among the additional guests were Mrs. J. March Patterson, of Chicago, and Mrs. George Henry Scripps, of Washington. Capt. and Mrs. McLean entertained the bride party and a few additional guests at supper last evening, following the rehearsal at the church.

Miss Peroline Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, has arrived in Washington to attend the wedding of Miss McLean and Mr. Patterson. She will be the bride's maid of honor. Mrs. Charles Day Palmer, daughter of the former Secretary of War and Mrs. Wright, one of the matrons of honor, is the guest of Capt. and Mrs. McLean. Mrs. G. P. Brown, of Cooperstown, N. Y., and Mrs. Borden, of Chicago, Ill., who came to Washington Tuesday evening, are also visiting Capt. and Mrs. McLean.

Former Representative and Mrs. Le Gage Pratt, of New Jersey, with their sons, Lyman and George, are at the Riggs House for a time. They made their home at the Riggs House during Mr. Pratt's Congressional service. They spend most of their time in Havana, Cuba, from where they came recently by boat, and will sail again for Havana on Saturday. Mr. Lyman Pratt is a student of aviation, and has been here for the flights at College Park and at Benning.

The naval attaché of the British embassy, Capt. Soverby, who spent the summer at Beverly, Mass., has arrived in Washington and joined the other members of the staff at the embassy.

Miss Shelby Lee Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Robinson, and Mr. William Nowlen Hallcock, of Bath, N. Y., were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in the Woodley. Rev. Herbert Scott, pastor of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, which was attended by the relatives. The house was decorated with quantities of palms, ferns, Southern holly, and yellow and white chrysanthemums. A string orchestra played the wedding music during the ceremony and reception which followed. The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white satin and duchesse lace with the bodice effectively draped in chiffon. Her veil was Venetian point lace, caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Robert E. Kizer, of Bath, N. Y., who was matron of honor, wore a gown of Venetian point lace over satin, with a yellow sash beaver hat, faced with black velvet and trimmed with a large bird of paradise. She carried yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves tied with yellow ribbon. Mr. Huntley H. Gilbert, of Chicago, Ill., was best man for Mr. Hallcock, and William Kemp Lyon, of Bath, N. Y., was groomsmen.

At the reception, which took place at 1:30 o'clock, Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, who assisted in receiving the guests, wore a handsome gown of white chiffon broadcloth, with a corsage bouquet of violets and orchids. Mrs. William H. Hallcock, of Bath, N. Y., mother of the bridegroom, wore white messaline satin with a large black hat, trimmed with a willow plume. Mrs. L. S. Scruggs, of Mississippi, grandmother of the bride, wore a gown of black embroidered chiffon cloth over satin. Mrs. George Hermann, cousin of the bride, of New York, was becomingly gowned in old rose crepe net, and Miss Sarah Cox, of Roanoke, Va., wore black velvet with a black beaver hat with a black willow plume. Mrs. Scruggs, Mrs. Jarman, Miss Cox, and Miss Anna Davis, of Mississippi, a cousin of the bride, are all house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hallcock.

Other out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. George Nowlen, Mrs. Reuben Lyon, and Miss Harriet Lyon, and Robert E. Kizer, all of Bath, N. Y. The young people left Washington after the reception for a bridal trip. The bride's going-away gown was a tailored suit of dark gray zibeline with a gray turban trimmed with an old rose border and a set of black lynx furs. Mr. and Mrs. Hallcock will make their home in Bath, N. Y., where they will be at home after November 1.

Mrs. Lulu Amman, extremely well liked in Washington society, has gone to New York, to sail for her home in Chile this week. She has been the guest of Mrs. Alexander Porter Morse at her country place, and has been entertained very constantly by them and her many friends in Washington.

Mrs. Clinton Goodloe Edgar, of Detroit, formerly Miss Mary McComas, daughter of the late Judge McComas, of Maryland and Washington, has been the guest of Mrs. Ethelbert Breckenridge. She returned yesterday to her home in Detroit after a series of luncheon, dinner, and theater parties by her hostess and her many other old friends in Washington.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Annapolis, Miss Eleanor Dashiell and Lieut. Julian Somerville Hatcher, U. S. N., were married by Rev. Joseph P. McComas. The bride is a daughter of the late Naval Constructor Robert B. Dashiell and Mrs. Eleanor Ridout Dashiell, of Murray Hill, Annapolis, Md. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. L. Hatcher, of Winchester, Va., a member of the faculty of Fort Loudoun Seminary, at Winchester. The altar was banked with white chrysanthemums, and palms, ferns, and white chrysanthemums adorned the chancel.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, Prof. Paul J. Dashiell, U. S. N., and the best man was Passed Midshipman A. S. Dashiell, U. S. N., now attached to the U. S. S. Tennessee. The ushers were Passed Midshipman B. C. McDaniel and L. E. Lindsay, of the U. S. S. Delaware; Passed Midshipman C. C. Davis and T. E. Van Meter, of the U. S. S. Connecticut; and Passed Midshipman E. A. McIntyre and B. V. Meade, class '10, of the U. S. S. Rhode Island.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Nancy Weems Dashiell. A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Franklin street, Murray Hill, for relatives and the bridal party.

The bride is a debutante of two seasons ago, and is popular in the younger set of Annapolis and the Naval Academy.

Miss Jessie Krogstad, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Krogstad, is the guest of Miss Katherine Brown, at the country home of her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Lee, in West Virginia.

The marriage is announced of Miss Emma Keller and Mr. Harry W. Wood.

The ceremony was performed Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the Metropolitan M. E. Church by Rev. John Reid Shannon. Only a small company of relatives and friends were present.

Miss Florence Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, Jr., and Mr. Harry Thomson, were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1407 Monroe street. Rev. Samuel H. Greene, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiated. Miss Thomson is married to Mr. Harry Thomson, Jr., who is a member of the firm of Messrs. H. H. Hall, of Alexandria, Va., acted as best man for Mr. Allen A. Thomson, who is married to Miss Thomson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hall, of Alexandria, Va., and is a member of the firm of Messrs. H. H. Hall, of Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris, who has been at Lenox, will come to Washington in a day or two.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boardman and Mrs. John Hay, who are now at Lenox, will leave there on Monday for Washington. Mrs. Boardman will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Patterson, managing editor of the Washington Times, whose marriage takes place this afternoon. Among the additional guests were Mrs. J. March Patterson, of Chicago, and Mrs. George Henry Scripps, of Washington. Capt. and Mrs. McLean entertained the bride party and a few additional guests at supper last evening, following the rehearsal at the church.

The wedding of Miss Mary H. Hoskinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hoskinson, of Derwood, Md., and Mr. John W. Sherwood took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Hoskinson, 1100 Wisconsin avenue. Rev. G. I. Pate, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, and the ushers were Paul Hoskinson, a brother of the bride; Edmund Freeman, Watts Farmer, and three cousins of the bridegroom, Craig, W. Donaldson, Harry Donaldson, and William Donaldson. There was no reception, owing to the serious illness of a member of the family. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood left for a brief wedding trip to New York. Upon their return they will be at home, after November 13, at 1629 Thirty-third street.

Miss Ethel Ada Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, and Mr. Wallace Adelbert Whitaker were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 1947 Biltmore street, by Rev. Frank J. Goodwin, pastor of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church. Only the immediate families and a few very close friends were present at the ceremony.

The house was tastefully decorated with quantities of ferns, autumn leaves, and clusters of yellow chrysanthemums and white cosmos blossoms. Miss Bessie Davis was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Helen W. Crouch played the wedding music. The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a traveling suit of navy blue cloth, with a large, graceful hat of black silk beaver, with wide, rolling brim, faced with white satin and with black velvet bow plumes. The bride's bouquet was a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore white mousseline and lace over pink, and carried pink roses. A reception and wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, and in the evening the young people left Washington for a bridal trip in the North. They will be at home, after November 15, at 401 Sixteenth street.

Miss Ethel Broadhead, oldest daughter of former Representative and Mrs. J. Davis Broadhead, and grandniece of Jefferson Davis, and Mr. Maxwell Kerr Gilchrist, of this city, were married at high noon yesterday in the library of the Broadhead home in South Bethlehem.

Mrs. Robert E. Kizer, of Bath, N. Y., who was matron of honor, wore a gown of Venetian point lace over satin, with a yellow sash beaver hat, faced with black velvet and trimmed with a large bird of paradise. She carried yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves tied with yellow ribbon. Mr. Huntley H. Gilbert, of Chicago, Ill., was best man for Mr. Hallcock, and William Kemp Lyon, of Bath, N. Y., was groomsmen.

At the reception, which took place at 1:30 o'clock, Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, who assisted in receiving the guests, wore a handsome gown of white chiffon broadcloth, with a corsage bouquet of violets and orchids. Mrs. William H. Hallcock, of Bath, N. Y., mother of the bridegroom, wore white messaline satin with a large black hat, trimmed with a willow plume. Mrs. L. S. Scruggs, of Mississippi, grandmother of the bride, wore a gown of black embroidered chiffon cloth over satin. Mrs. George Hermann, cousin of the bride, of New York, was becomingly gowned in old rose crepe net, and Miss Sarah Cox, of Roanoke, Va., wore black velvet with a black beaver hat with a black willow plume. Mrs. Scruggs, Mrs. Jarman, Miss Cox, and Miss Anna Davis, of Mississippi, a cousin of the bride, are all house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hallcock.

Other out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. George Nowlen, Mrs. Reuben Lyon, and Miss Harriet Lyon, and Robert E. Kizer, all of Bath, N. Y. The young people left Washington after the reception for a bridal trip. The bride's going-away gown was a tailored suit of dark gray zibeline with a gray turban trimmed with an old rose border and a set of black lynx furs. Mr. and Mrs. Hallcock will make their home in Bath, N. Y., where they will be at home after November 1.

Mrs. Lulu Amman, extremely well liked in Washington society, has gone to New York, to sail for her home in Chile this week. She has been the guest of Mrs. Alexander Porter Morse at her country place, and has been entertained very constantly by them and her many friends in Washington.

Mrs. Clinton Goodloe Edgar, of Detroit, formerly Miss Mary McComas, daughter

Lansburgh & Bro.

420-426 7th Street.
417-425 8th Street.

Business Hours:
Daily 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

BLACK DRESS GOODS

50c Black Mohair, 39c

42 inches wide, with a bright, lustrous finish. In an ideal jet black, the correct weight for suits, separate skirts, or one-piece dresses. To-day, per yard, 39c

75c Black Storm Serge, 49c

6 inches wide. All-wool Self-Stripe Storm Serge in an ideal jet black; the correct weight for suits, separate skirts, or one-piece dresses. To-day, per yard, 49c

$1.50 Black San Toy, $1.29

41-inch All-wool Pure Silk and Wool San Toy, the new fabric for suits and dresses; noted for its wearing qualities, and drapes nicely. Positively our $1.50 quality. To-day, per yard, $1.29

Pa. Rev. J. P. Walsh performing the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Leonie Broadhead, as maid of honor, and Mr. Gilmore's brother, Mr. William Pegram Gilmore, acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Hugh H. Gilmore, of this city, a brother of the bridegroom; J. H. Watson, of Washington, and Crawford Allison, of Philadelphia.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and later in the afternoon the couple left for a trip by automobile.

Mr. Mattie Stone Kuntz, of 211 Bates street northwest, is visiting relatives and friends in Mount Sterling and Covington, Ky. Mrs. Kuntz is the mother of Miss Kuntz, of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Mrs. Oliver Bierre Patton announces the marriage of her daughter, Susan Bierre, and Dr. Adolphus Bogardus Bennett, Jr., captain, medical department, U. S. A., Monday, October 17, at Hantsville, Ala.

Mrs. D. P. McCartney and her niece, Miss Anna Irwin, sail to-day on the Adriatic, and will spend the winter in Europe.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Adelaide Walker, daughter of Mr. William Tobias Walker, and Mr. James Barrett Carter took place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of Dr. S. H. Greene, of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Only the members of the immediate families of the contracting parties were present, owing to the recent illness of the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Carter left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip, after which they will be at home at the Birmingham, 2811 Adams Mill road.

Miss Minnie Pauline Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jacobs, and Mr. Max Cantrion Vogt, U. S. N., were married Tuesday at the home of the bride by Rev. Father James A. Smyth. Miss Dora Melton was the maid of honor. The bride wore a smart tailored gown of gray velvet, with hat to match, with bouquets of pink. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Jacobs' brother, Mr. John H. Jacobs, acted as his best man. Later the couple left for an extended bridal trip in the North.

The wedding of Miss Bessie Jackson Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dallas Haley, of Virginia, and Mr. Edward Tyson Hinesley took place at noon Tuesday at Calvary Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. Samuel H. Donaldson, officiating. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride was gowned in white tulle silk, draped with net and trimmed with satin ribbon bows. She wore a large white picture hat, trimmed with an embroidered scarf, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses and myrtle leaves. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served, and a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Merritt, at 154 F street southeast. Later in the day the young couple left Washington for a bridal trip through Virginia, where they will be the guests of relatives. After October 25 they will be at home at Windsor, N. C.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Hutton, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Hutton, of Warrenton, Va., to Dr. R. E. Ferryhough took place yesterday afternoon in the Baptist Church at Warrenton at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. R. B. Boston performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Hutton, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Ray and Edie Hawley, of Orleans, Va.; Miss Josephine Brodas, of Warrenton, and Miss Mary Hooe, of this city. Dr. Ferryhough, of Washington, was his brother's best man. The ushers were Messrs. E. J. Jones, J. Stewart White, of Warrenton, and Dr. Mansfield, of Washington. The bride and bridegroom were preceded by the aisle by a miniature bride and bridegroom, Little Carlisle, of Alexandria, bearing the ring on a white satin cushion. The bride wore white lace over white satin, with a tulle veil, and a tiara and necklace of pearls that belonged to her great-grandmother. The bridegroom wore a tulle suit with a large black picture hat, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore cream net over cream silk, with lace hats, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bride and bridegroom left after the reception for a trip north, and will reside in Warrenton.

Commercial Club Meet To-night.
The Commercial Club will hold its inaugural meeting of the season this evening, when matters of importance will be taken up for consideration. At a meeting of the board of governors yesterday, H. C. Stiles was unanimously elected secretary to succeed D. J. Callahan, who resigned, owing to pressure of business. Mr. Stiles will begin his duties to-night.

BIG BASS CATCH REWARDED.
Maj. H. A. Hall Returns with Silver Loving Cup.

Maj. H. A. Hall, of this city, has returned from the Adirondacks and has brought a silver loving cup, which he won for catching the largest bass at the Brand Lake Fishing Club.

The cup was given by Dr. Otto Luigul, of New York City, and is now on exhibition in the show window of E. G. Hines, 921 F street northwest.

Ocean Steamships.
New York, Oct. 19.—Arrived out: Majestic, at Southampton.

Sailed from foreign ports: Kaiser Wilhelm II, from Boulogne; Oceano, from Southampton.

ARMY MEN TO RIDE

Cavalry Officers Enter for Washington Show.

POLICE WILL SHOW MOUNTS

Military Classes in Capital Horse Exhibition Arouse Much Interest and Bring Out Big Entry List—Dr. Spear to Show His Crack Team in the Tandem Events.

Entries in the military classes in the Washington horse show, which is to be held at the American League Park October 25 and 26, have exceeded the expectations of the promoters. A large number of entries have been made by officers at Fort Myer, Va., and the class for police mounts has been well filled.

Capt. J. R. Lindsey, of Troop A, which will give the exhibition drill the first day of the show, has entered his mount in both the class for officers' chargers and the class for local hunters. Lieut. C. S. McNeill, Fifth Cavalry; Lieut. John C. Lee, Lieut. R. F. Tate, and Lieut. F. M. Stewart, all of Fort Myer, will also exhibit their mounts.

Capt. G. Fortescue, U. S. A., detailed at the Bureau of American Republics; Col. Charles G. Treat, and Maj. Henry T. Allen have entered their horses in both the military and jumping classes. Seven entries have been made in the class for police mounts. Thomas C. Noyes has offered a silver cup as the first prize in this class, and S. N. Meyer has donated a riding crop for the second place. Washington men who have entered these classes are Abram Buckingham, P. T. Creaghe, W. T. Davis, John O. Evans, John C. Heide, John Mayer, John W. McCormick, Thomas S. Martin, and William Riley. The judges of the military classes are Gen. John A. Johnston, Maj. Richard Sylvester, and Col. Joseph Garrard.

Dr. Spear to Show.
Following Dr. Raymond Spear has entered his team, Cherrie and Lady Brill. This is one of the finest teams in the District. It will be shown as a park tandem, sporting tandem, and in a number of other classes.

Louis Leight will show his Rouboutan, the horse that will be ridden by Miss Katherine Cheronnier, of Timonium, Md., in an attempt to break the world's record for the high jump.

Lee Hechinger will enter Actor and mate, and Dr. Raymond Spear's Cherrie and Lady Brill will be shown in the class. Thomas F. Ryan will show his Merry Widow and mate, and the Hienheim Hunt Club, of Baltimore, will send over a team. These entries have already been made. The sporting tandem class is made up entirely of prize winners and will be an attractive feature.

The entry of the Oak Ridge stable of Thomas F. Ryan makes a considerable addition to the list. Mr. Ryan has entered Merry Widow and mate, jumpers